South American Diplomats Insist That Rebels Must Declare Armistice and Internal as Well as International Phases of Mexican Problem Must Be Adjusted.Niagara Falls, Ont., June 16.—The three South American mediators formally advised General Carranza by telegraph that they will not admit his representatives to the conference here unless an armistice is declared and internal as well as international phases of the Mexican problem accepted as the scope of mediation.This action followed the receipt of a note from Rafael Zubaran, special representative of Carranza in Washington, announcing the appointment of Fernando Iglesias Calderon, Luis Cabrera and Jose Vasconcelos as Constitutionalist delegates to the mediation, at which, according to the views of the Constitutionalist chief, "it is sought to settle the international conflict which has arisen between the United States and 'the Mexican republic'."The mediators told General Carranza they feared he "had not duly considered" their communications requesting an armistice and that his representatives should discuss the entire Mexican problem.The conference was devoted entirely to the question of selecting a provisional president to succeed General Huerta. It was the third day of discussion of personnel and was as fruitless as previous meetings.During the conference inquiry was made as to whether Charles A.
Towne, former United States senator from Minnesota, is representing the interests of the Huerta government in Washington. The Huerta delegates replied that they knew nothing about his activities.The discussion of personnel will continue until every resource has been exhausted. More "conversations," as the informal parleys are designated officially, will be held during the coming few days, but it is apparent that the two sets of delegates are far apart.Huerta's delegates are insisting that a "neutral" be named.

APPEARS TO CLOSE DOORS

Friends of Insurgents So View Action of Mediators.Washington, June 16.—Men in the confidence of the Constitutionalist agency here declared that the mediators' telegram to General Carranza appeared to close the door to any further correspondence regarding Constitutionalist participation in the Niagara Falls conference. They contended that it brings the situation to a conclusion such that left no room for any reply by Carranza and asserted that under the conditions the Constitutionalist chief will not send representatives to Niagara Falls even in an unofficial capacity.

MEXICAN ADDS TO FORCE

One Thousand Reinforcements Arrive at Vera Cruz.Vera Cruz, June 16.—The arrival of 1,000 reinforcements for the command of General Navarrete at San Francisco, twenty miles from Vera Cruz, and repeated reports of aggressiveness on the part of Mexican scouting parties have increased the vigilance of the outposts all along the American lines.General Funston places the forces just beyond his own lines at not less than 3,000.

TERRORIZED BY ROBBERS

Band of Bad Men Runs Wild in Coal Mining District.Charleston, W. Va., June 16.—Hiding in abandoned coal mines by day and raiding by night a band of robbers has for two weeks terrorized the Paint and Cabin creek district. Their latest exploit, the removal of $8,000 worth of merchandise from the coal company store at Crown Hill, was accomplished without detection.Nineteen box cars on the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad have been looted and one of them, in which a railroad detective was believed to be hiding, was riddled with bullets from high power rifles.

BRYAN WILL ANSWER

JAPAN'S LAST NOTE.

Washington, June 16.—After a lapse of a month the United States is about to reply to Japan's last note on the California anti-alien land law, Secretary Bryan said:
"The note of Aug. 26 last will be answered as soon as the matter can be reached.
The answer was suspended by the discussion of other means of adjusting the differences."

THINKS PATRIOTISM WANES

Judge Parker Addresses Yale Law School Class.New Haven, Conn., June 16.—"Something is radically wrong in the mental processes of the electorate or else patriotism is at its last gasp when, with hardly a whisper of protest, a retired chief executive may brag to representatives of the people of his treasonable scheme to intrude upon state rights and violate otherwise the fundamental law by establishing a military receivership over coal mines pending a strike," said Judge Alton B. Parker of New York, once a candidate for the presidency, addressing the graduating class of the Yale law school."Our forebears anticipated just such vicious attacks by those in power and sought to insure to us a government of laws and not of men," continued the judge. "Through their wisdom such a government is ours for a little vigilance."FEDERAL SOLDIERS

President Wilson.Billings, Mont., June 16.— On new orders Company K, Montana national guard, was mobilized at the armory here awaiting orders to proceed to Butte.Washington, June 16.—Governor Stewart of Montana telegraphed President Wilson asking that federal troops be held in readiness to restore order in the event of further rioting in the Butte copper mine field.The president took no action pending further advice from the governor. A conference with the Montana delegation in congress was arranged at the White House.Governor Stewart in his telegram to the president said there are only 500 militiamen in Montana and that he fears serious trouble is likely to result within the next few days. He explained that rioting has resulted from conflicts between members of the Western Federation of Miners and the Industrial Workers of the World.

WOULD WAIVE AGE LIMIT

Senator Hoke Smith Introduces Bill Affecting Old Soldiers.Washington, June 16.—Senator Hoke ments as fourth class postmasters.CONGRESS WANTS

THE WEATHER GETTING WARM

Political Fences Need Attention, and Legislators Require Vacation, but There's Little Chance Until After Passage of Trust Bills—Marshall Likes Job of Presiding Over Senate.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, June 16.—[Special.]— "When are we going to get away?" That is a question that is heard more frequently than any other in Washington these days. As we approach midsummer and the hot weather makes Washington uncomfortable there is a greater demand than ever before to close up the legislation and adjourn.Even with this demand there seems to be no change in the attitude of the president, although that change is predicted from week to week.
Congress having gained a little something in the action on the canal tolls repeal hope is expressed that the president will yield on his program for trust legislation and be satisfied if one of the bills shall be enacted into law. There is no real reason for this hope, for the president has not yet given any indication that he will be satisfied with anything but the trust legislative program.

Settled For a Siege.

The senate has virtually settled itself for a long siege. The senate knows that all this trust legislative program cannot be pushed through in a hurry. There is talk of beginning the sessions at 10 o'clock and, in addition, to also hold night sessions, but a plan of that kind will break down because there is too much other business for senators to look after, and they cannot spend all their time in the senate. The trust legislation opens up such a wide field of debate that no one can tell where it will end.

Conservation Legislation.

It begins to look as if the threat of Senator Borah that the reclamation legislative program would be attached to the river and harbor bill would cause action on the different conservation bills in the house. But even that will not hasten adjournment unless the bill that Borah wants passed should be among the number.

It Suits Marshall.

"Oh, it is lots of fun" was a remark of Vice President Marshall when speaking of some of his experiences in the senate. Not long ago a bill was under consideration as to the title that would be given to men who were sent out through the country to educate the farmers in farming. Stress was laid upon the fact as to whether such men should or should not be called "professors." The vice president listened to this talk for nearly half a day and then wrote a note which he sent to Senator Bryan of Florida containing the following quotation from one of the philosophers of the day: "A professor is a man who has got religion and ain't ashamed of it."

New Hampshire's Prior Right.

Some time ago Senator Walsh of Montana was having a bill passed relating to the Glacier National park in his state. Just as the bill was about to pass Senator Gallinger of New Hampshire remarked that he noticed in the report that this portion of Montana was referred to as the "Switzerland of America.""I have no objection whatever to the bill," said Senator Gallinger, "but on behalf of New Hampshire I must protest against the appropriation of that title, which has so long belonged to my state."

Different Kinds of Smiles.

The senator who goes out into a campaign and meets defeat is obliged to return and, what is more, is obliged to smile when he meets his colleagues.
A senator who is successful does not need much encouragement to smile, but it is a different kind of a smile from that which is observed on the face of a defeated senator. There was a striking example of that recently when Senator Fletcher of Florida returned after a successful primary campaign. Only a short time before Senator Crawford of South Dakota had returned after an unsuccessful campaign. Both had to smile, but there was a vast difference in the smiles.

In a Familiar Tone.

The guides showing sightseers about the capitol pass by the row of vice presidential busts in the senate wing.
They speak of Levi P. Morton, of Vice President Fairbanks, of Vice President Hobart; then they refer to another as Uncle Adlai, meaning Vice President Stevenson. Next the visitors are told that another man is "Jim Sherman." Passing to the next bust the guide will say, "That's Teddy."

No Man in Training.

So far no member of the house seems to be in training for Oscar Underwood's job in the next congress, although it seems that Claude Kitchen of North Carolina is slated for that place. Quite a number of Democrats have been temporary leaders during the past few months, but Kitchen has not been among them.

the clearing house, is being organized to take over the closed La Salle Street Trust and Savings bank was confirmed by C. B. Munday, vice president.The plan includes the immediate purchase of the institution and the retirement of Mr. Munday and William H. Lorimer, the president.
"It is necessary that Mr. Lorimer and myself resign to restore public confidence," Mr. Munday asserted.
"Our resignations were not suggested, but it is evident that it is the only thing we can do."REV. L. R. PATMONT DISAPPEARS AGAINProhibition Worker Is Suddenly Lost in Detroit.Detroit, June 16.—Rev. Louis R.
Patmont of Westville, Ill., who recently was found in the cellar of a house near Columbia, Ill., where he declared he had been held in captivity by kidnappers, disappeared in Detroit and his friends have appealed to the police to search for him.Mr. Patmont was brought to Detroit several weeks ago to recuperate after his release. He started from the house where he had been staying to attend services at a church about two miles distant. He failed to reach the church and after several hours' fruitless search his friends called upon the police department for assistance. They declared he has been kidnapped again.Mr. Patmont was prominent in working for the "dry" forces in Illinois and, according to his story, was seized by men representing the "wets." He was missing for nearly two months and at one time the body of a man found near Cleveland was identified as his. When found in the cellar he was almost a wreck.

BOYS SEIZED WITH CRAMPS

Two Perish While Bathing on Outskirts of St. Paul.St. Paul, June 16.—Cameron Peterson, eight years old, and Elmer Anderson, nine years old, were drowned in a pool near Montreal avenue and the Mississippi river. It was several hours before any one knew the lads had gone to their death from a seizure of cramps.The two boys, together with Reuben Johnson and Harry Stein, eight years of age, went to the pool to swim. After splashing around in the water for several hours Reuben and Harry tired of the sport and, donning their clothes, joined another group of boys fishing in Crosby's lake. A half mile away. They watched the fishing a while and then decided to rejoin their first companions.When they arrived at the pool the other boys were nowhere to be seen.
Their clothes were still hidden under an oak tree where they had been placed by the boys.

he said, include 300 rings, 150 scarf

One Dead and Three Wounded in New York City.New York, June 16.—William Pelle-grini, in Bellevue hospital, refused to divulge the names of his assailants or to tell how his brother Salvatore was murdered in front of the Church of the Immaculate Conception.The brothers were decoyed from their home by two men on the invitation to go to a saloon. As they passed the church the two decoys fell back.
Salvatore received a bullet in his back.William was struck in the back twice and in the neck once. Before the police arrived the gunmen had vanished.Two children were shot in the legs during the fray.It is believed the crime was in revenge for the brothers' capture of two burglars recently.

DOES NOT LIKE BOASTING

Chief Executive Addresses Large Crowd Before the War, State and Navy Buildings in Celebration of Flag Day—Asserts National Emblem Stands for Justice of Undisputed Power.Washington, June 16.—Waving his hand toward an American flag hoisted by a squad of bluejackets President Wilson told a great crowd assembled before the state, war and navy buildings to celebrate Flag day, that, flying over a reunited nation, this banner for the future is "meant to stand for the justice of undisputed national power.""Our spirits as well as our states are now reunited," the president said, "and nobody questions our ability to push forward our economic affairs on lines of unparalleled successes and prosperity.""I sometimes wonder why men take this flag and flaunt it. If I am respected I do not have to demand respect. If I am feared I do not have to ask for fear. If my power is known I do not have to proclaim it.
I don't understand the temper, neither does this nation understand the temper of men who use this flag boastfully.""This flag for the future is meant to stand for the justice of undisputed national power. No nation is ever going to doubt our power to assert its rights; and we should lay it to heart that no nation henceforth ever shall doubt our purpose to put it to the highest uses to which a great emblem of justice and government can be put.""It is henceforth to stand for self-possession, for dignity, for the assertion of the right of one nation to serve the other nations of the world —an emblem that will not condescend to be used for purposes of aggression and self-aggrandizement; that it is too great to be debased by selfishness; that it has vindicated its right to be honored by all nations of the world.""Is it not a proud thing to stand under such an emblem? Would it not be a pitiful thing ever to make apology and explanation of anything that we ever did under the leadership of this flag carried in the van?
Is it not a solemn responsibility laid upon us to lay aside bluster and assume that much greater thing, the quietude of genuine power? So it seems to me that it is my privilege and right, as the temporary representative of a great nation that does what it pleases with its own affairs, to say that we please to do justice and assert the rights of mankind wherever this flag is unfurled."

PRESIDENT DESIRES ACTION

Confers With Senators Regarding Anti-Trust Bills.Washington, June 16.—Leaders among the senate Democrats gathered at the White House to talk with President Wilson about the legislation the administration wants to go through before congress adjourns.
The anti-trust bill passed by the house, or similar legislation, are the only measures on the program to be insisted on.The president told the senators, who included the members of the Democratic steering committee and the chairman of the judiciary and interstate commerce committees, that while he joined with members of congress in anxiety for an early adjournment he strongly felt that the antitrust bills should be passed during the present session.

DEPUTY KILLED IN FIGHT

Another Officer and Alleged Horse Thief Wounded.Billings, Mont., June 16.—Under Sheriff W. H. Veach of Sheridan, Wyo., was shot through the heart and killed and Deputy Sheriff Frank Rue of Basin, Wyo., was wounded in the leg by Earl Forey of Basin, an alleged horse thief. Forey was shot five times by Rue and is expected to die.
A nickel star pinned to the left breast of Policeman Charles Webb of Sheridan, Wyo., saved his life when Chester Clark, a burglar, fired an automatic revolver point blank at his cap-itor at a distance of less than two feet. The star deflected the bullet.A battle in a taxicab in which Falk and a companion were being taken to jail resulted in the wounding of the prisoner and the taxi driver.

Office in Dispatch Building on 6th St.
Entered at the post office at Brainerd, Minn., as second class matter.

TUESDAY, JUNE 16, 1914.

The Fourth of July comes on Saturday this year, which gives you an extra day to get over it.

The Women's National Federation declares emphatically for women's suffrage at the Chicago convention now in session. "Votes for Women" did not appeal to some of the delegates, who probably were thinking of the troubles in England, but the opposition was promptly overruled.

Hon. C. A. Towne, well known in this city and a former senator from Minnesota, has been retained by General Huerta, the Mexican dictator, to represent him at Washington. Charley must be looking at the job in a mercenary way for there seems to be nothing any mortal can do to aid the cause represented by him.

Well, anyhow, everybody could not be nominated, and as long as the primary law allows two to gain victory and then fight it out at the polls in November, where there are three who aspire to the office, the general public ought to be satisfied inasmuch as they have another whack at them. The candidates defeated can thank their stars that the agony with them is ended in the first round.

Brainerd will celebrate the glorious Fourth in royal style, it won't be necessary to go out of town to get rid of the joy feeling which comes over every loyal American citizen on that day. Let's get the people from the neighboring towns and the surrounding country in the habit of coming to Brainerd on these occasions instead of cultivating the habit of deserting the city and spending our money elsewhere. Just push.

The familiar faces that have greeted the public at every turn of the road, at every grocery store, hotel and livery barn in the state for the past three months will disappear now that the election is over. The general public will also notice an absence of pictorial splendor in the country press as only the faces of the winners will grace the columns of these publications as the victory is announced. The campaign for nomination is over and now comes the contest for supremacy between those unfortunate enough to have had opposition at the primaries, and it will last for five months. Locally the contest has been friendly, and from now on the friends of the candidates for county and legislative offices are expected to line up for their choice, those offices being non-partisan, while on the congressional and state affairs it is a contest between parties. The thought comes as to why the division, if the non-partisan is good for one why not for all, either one way or the other the same election laws should govern, and in accord with the general sentiment it seems that there should be some changes in the primary system.

The big oil tractor purchased by Crow Wing county was given a test on the Oak street road by the county commissioners and the Winona company which sold the machine to the county. At the junction of roads No. 2 and 6 it was given a severe line of work, that of pulling two graders down state road No. 6. The machine, observed at the time of working on the Oak street road, pulled both graders and made a good showing. ## COUNTRY SCHOOLS PICNIC

Walker, Ossipee and Leitner Schools School Grounds
Picnic on the Ossipee

The Walker, Leitner and Ossipee schools enjoyed a union picnic at the Ossipee school grounds, this having come to be an annual event, and the picnic this year far outclassing any previous one held by these schools.

The weather in the morning was rather threatening and it seemed there would be but a small crowd, but by noon nearly one hundred people had gathered at the school house and spread the contents of their well filled baskets on a large table and, judging from the way the food disappeared, every one had been fasting some time in order to do justice to the dinner, but there was enough left to feed another good-sized crowd.

After dinner more people came, raising the attendance to 115. The school was too small to hold all, and so the program was given in the open air. The whole program went to show that teachers and scholars had worked hard to give an entertainment worth while and the audience showed their appreciation by frequent and hearty applause.

Miss Ruth Anderson just closes her fourth term at the Ossipee school. Emile Pruehek closes his second term at the Leitner school. Miss Hazel Willis has not yet finished her first term at the Walker school, but joined with the others in a union picnic.

DAM NOT IN DANGER

Highest Point of Water at Crow Wing Dam was Reached last Friday —Waters Receding

A report has gone out at the Twin Cities that the Crow Wing dam of the Cuyuna Range Power company was in danger of going out on account of the high water. The dam has never been in danger a moment.

The highest stage of water, two feet higher than ever before registered, occurred last Friday. Since then the waters have receded and there is now absolutely no danger. Heavy rains in the country north caused the sudden rise in the river. A little damage was done to the shore line.

Seven aldermen were present at Monday night's meeting of the council. Those absent were Aldermen Hess, Peterson and Smith.

Considerable discussion was had about the bridge fill. The city engineer was instructed to draw up plans and specifications as soon as possible covering the third ward sewer.

DEVELOPMENTS OF WEEK ON RANGE

Armour No. 2 Mine has Shipped Cargo of Manganese Iron Ore and Filling Another Order

COUNTY POOR FARM GOOD ORE

Iron Trade Review, of Cleveland, Says Reports are More Cheerful on Pig Iron

On the north range it is reported that the Thompson mine of the Inland Steel Co., converted from an underground to a pit mine, will this season total 200,000 tons in its shipments. A steam shovel is working at the mine. The Pennington pit mine shipped 100,000 tons last year and can be expected to ship largely this season. A shovel is stripping along the south bank of the pit. At the Rowe pit mine at Riverton two huge pumps are part of the hydraulic equipment which is sluicing away the overburden.

At Loerch, on the Northern Pacific railway, McCullough and Obeney, the Minneapolis railway contractors, have begun grading the extension to the Wilcox mine. The shaft is now over 80 feet deep. Canadian steel interests, it is reported, will use largely the yield from the Wilcox mine which does not have to worry about disposing of its output.

The Hale-Bradley Exploration Co., of Deerwood, has a drill working in section 10, township 46, range 28. F. A. Edson has three drills at work near Cedar lake. D. A. Foley, a ditch man of Aitkin, is operating a drill on his own land in the city limits of Aitkin. Gus Raymond, of Aitkin, has turned over nine forties, situated partly in Crow Wing and Aitkin counties, to be explored.

At the county poor farm of Crow Wing county the E. J. Longyear company is drilling its third hole. The second hole was completed at a depth of 361 feet with ore running better than 50 per cent for about 25 feet from 174 to 300 feet. The third hole is still in the surface.

There has been filed an option for purchase, on receipt of $300, such sum permitting John McManus, of Deerwood, to explore for six months the land of Adolph Irwick situated in the northeast quarter of the northeast quarter of section 16, township 28, range 40 and to buy the land for $8,000.

The Duluth-Brainerd shaft is now down 150 feet and drifting is in progress. The three-compartment shaft is of the best construction. Cement foundations for the permanent head frames are now being put in. Grading of the sidetracks and the coal trestle approach have been completed. Rails on the Cuyuna Northern railway extension to the mine will soon be laid.

The Barrows mine, it is reported by Barrows people, will shortly be worked by a new mining company, taking the place of the M. A. Hanna Co., which is to discontinue its lease on June 29. The Hanna people found one of the best quality and shipped 10,000 tons in 1913 and over 25,000 tons in 1914. At the close of June the mine was hoisting 450 tons daily from the shaft to cars and shipping 80 cars a day from the stockpile. E. J. Cooke, of Superior, ore agent of the Northern Pacific railway, was on the south range this week.

From the Armour No. 2 mine of the Rogers, Brown Ore Co., at Crosby and Ironton, has been made a cargo shipment of manganese iron ore and the company is now working on a second order in addition to having shipped considerable iron ore from its shaft to cars. The Kennedy mine of the same company at Cuyuna is also shipping from shaft to cars, both mines not having touched the stockpiles accumulated in the winter months.
